Frequently Asked Questions

- 1. What is the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC)?
The League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC), founded in 1929, is the oldest and most widely respected Hispanic civil rights organization in the United States of America. Since its founding, LULAC has fought for full access to the political process and works to improve opportunities for Hispanic Americans.
- 2. What is LULAC's mission?
The mission of the League of United Latin American Citizens is to advance the economic condition, educational attainment, political influence, housing, health and civil rights of the Hispanic population of the United States.
- 3. How does LULAC work toward achieving its mission?
LULAC works through three primary, complementary approaches:
  - Programming- In its simplest terms, the basic program of LULAC is to fight discrimination based on race, ethnicity, or national origin. Our programming focuses on the following key areas: civic participation, civil rights, economic development, education, health, housing, immigration, leadership, public service, technology, women, youth, young adults, and the 50+ demographic. Each of these issues offers unique challenges and opportunities. Our programming varies based on available funding as well as the current needs of our community.
  - Advocacy- As the Latino community's government liaison in Washington, we monitor legislation and provide policy makers with the Latino perspective on immigration, affirmative action, business, education, and other issues impacting our community. Our National Policy Platform can be found at www.lulac.org/platform.
  - Membership- Our extensive membership base works to achieve LULAC's mission through programming and advocacy at the local level.

4. What does it mean to be a membership based organization?

LULAC is the largest and most active membership organization serving the Latino community. LULAC volunteer members are the driving force behind significant advancements and improvements to the quality of life for Hispanics across the country. Since LULAC's founding, our members have not wavered in their determination to end discrimination and injustice for Hispanics living in the United States.

5. What do LULAC councils do?

LULAC councils across the United States hold voter registration drives, citizenship awareness sessions, sponsor health fairs and tutorial programs, and raise scholarship money for the LULAC National Scholarship Fund. LULAC Councils have also responded to an alarming increase in xenophobia and anti-Hispanic sentiment. They have held seminars and public symposiums on language and immigration issues.

6. Who is a typical LULAC member?

LULAC members are volunteers and a majority of them have full-time jobs or academic careers in addition to the work that they do on behalf of LULAC. Our membership base is broad and diverse, with our members ranging from college students to retired adults. There isn't a typical LULAC member, yet the one trait that our members share is their commitment to furthering LULAC's mission and empowering their local Latino community.

7. How many councils does LULAC have?

LULAC have over 900 councils nationwide.

8. Does LULAC work in Latin America?

LULAC's primary mission is to work to advance the civil rights of the Hispanic population in the United States.
